Bloomington Chamber Singers receives grant from Psi Iota Xi

Bloomington, Ind. – The board of the Bloomington Chamber Singers (BCS) has announced receipt of a grant from the Zeta Chapter of Psi Iota Xi, a philanthropic sorority, to support its performance activities in the Bloomington community. The $500 grant was applied to the cost of constructing a set of choral platforms.

Board president Paul Pisano noted that the platform system enables the choir to perform safely in any location. “We are deeply grateful to Psi Iota Xi for helping us serve our community through the performing arts,” he added.

Founded in 1970, BCS is a community chorus of volunteer singers that performs a full schedule of concerts each season. For more information, visit their website at chambersingers.info.
